Terms of Reference for the Remuneration Committee ("the Committee")

References to "the Board" shall mean the Board of Directors

1. Membership

- 1.1 The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board, on the recommendation of the Nomination Committee in consultation with the Chairman of the Remuneration Committee. The Committee shall be made up of at least 3 members, all of whom shall be regarded as independent non-executive directors.
- 1.2 Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the CEO, Group HR Director and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate.
- 1.3 Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for further three-year periods, provided the director is considered to be independent.
- 1.4 The Board shall appoint the Committee Chairman who shall be an independent non-executive director and shall have served on a remuneration committee for at least 12 months prior to being appointed to the role. In the absence of the Committee Chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting. The Chairman of the Board shall not be Chairman of the Committee.

2. Secretary

- 2.1 The Company Secretary or their nominee shall act as the Secretary of the Committee.

3. Quorum

- 3.1 The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee.

4. Meetings

- 4.1 The Committee shall meet at least twice a year and at such times as the Chairman of the Committee shall require.

5. Notice of Meetings

- 5.1 Meetings of the Committee shall be summoned by the Secretary of the Committee at the request of any of its members.
- 5.2 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, no later than 5 working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

6. Minutes of Meetings

- 6.1 The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.
- 6.2 Minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated to all members of the Committee and, once agreed, to all members of the Board, unless a conflict of interests exists.

7. Annual General Meeting

- 7.1 The Chairman of the Committee shall attend the Annual General Meeting and be prepared to respond to any shareholder questions on the Committee's activities.

8. Duties

The Committee shall:

- 8.1 determine and agree with the Board the framework or broad policy for the remuneration of the company's CEO, Chairman, Executive Directors, the Company Secretary and other members of the Executive Committee. The remuneration of Non-executive Directors shall be a matter for the Chairman and the executive members of the Board. No director or manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration;
- 8.2 in determining such policy, take into account all factors which it deems necessary. The objective of such policy shall be to ensure that members of the executive management of the company are provided with appropriate incentives to encourage enhanced performance and are, in a fair and responsible manner, rewarded for their individual contributions to the success of the company.
- 8.3 when determining remuneration policy and practices, address the following:
- Clarity* – remuneration arrangements should be transparent and promote effective engagement with shareholders and the workforce;
- Simplicity* – remuneration structures should avoid complexity and their rationale and operation should be easy to understand;
- Risk* – remuneration arrangements should ensure reputational and other risks from excessive rewards, and ensure behavioural risks that can arise from target-based incentive plans are identified and mitigated;
- Predictability* – the range of possible values of rewards to individual directors and any other limits or discretions should be identified and explained at the time of approving the policy;
- Proportionality* – the link between individual awards, the delivery of strategy and the long-term performance and the Company should be clear. Outcomes should not reward poor performance; and
- Alignment to culture* – incentive schemes should drive behaviours consistent with Company purpose, values and strategy.
- 8.4 review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy;
- 8.5 approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the company and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes;
- 8.6 review the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the Board and shareholders. For any such plans, determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to Executive Directors and other senior executives and the performance targets to be used;
- 8.7 determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each Executive Director and other members of the Executive Committee;
- 8.8 ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any payments made, are fair to the individual and the company, that failure is not rewarded and that the need to mitigate loss is duly considered;
- 8.9 within the terms of the agreed policy and in consultation with the Chairman and/or CEO as appropriate, determine the total individual remuneration package of each Executive Director and other members of the Executive Committee, including bonuses, incentive payments and share options or other share awards, taking external advice as appropriate;
- 8.10 in determining such packages and arrangements, give due regard to any relevant legal requirements, the provisions and recommendations in the UK Corporate Governance Code and the UK Listing Authority's Listing Rules and associated guidance;
- 8.11 review and note annually the remuneration trends across the group;
- 8.12 oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the group;
- 8.13 agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the CEO and Chairman;

- 8.14 ensure that all provisions regarding disclosure of remuneration including pensions are fulfilled;
- 8.15 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee: and
- 8.16 to obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies. The Committee shall have full authority to commission any reports or surveys which it deems necessary to help it fulfil its obligations.

9 Reporting Responsibilities

- 9.1 The Committee Chairman shall report formally to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 9.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 9.3 The Committee shall produce an annual report of the company's remuneration policy and practices which will form part of the company's Annual Report and ensure each year that it is put to shareholders for approval at the AGM.

10 Other

- 10.1 The Committee shall, at least once a year, review its own performance, constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

11 Authority

- 11.1 The Committee is authorised by the Board to seek any information it requires from any employee of the company in order to perform its duties.
- 11.2 In connection with its duties the Committee is authorised by the Board to obtain, at the company's expense, any outside legal or other professional advice within any budgetary restraints imposed by the Board, to appoint remuneration consultants, and to purchase any relevant reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary to help fulfil its duties.
